BREED THEATER.

The Little Shepherd of Tumbling Run,

Western Feature Picture.

The Breed theater was packed to the doors and standing room was at a premium Saturday evening when the large audience was regaled with the fine programme presented. The musical numbers especially coming in for a large share of the applause.

For the first part of this week Manager McNuity has arranged a varied and interesting programme which includes the great western picture success. The Little Shepherd of Tumbling Run, besides these following dramas, all of acknowledged merit, which are sure to plane, the leavest was to plane the leavest to plane the leavest was to plane the leavest to the division. While the change means comparatively little to the city in other respects, it increases its importance as a rallroad point and is welcomed on that account. The change will bring some accores of new residents here, chiefly from New Haven.—Waterbury Republican.

A Fine Hobby.

With all due respect to devotees of other pastimes, one may venture to remark that no youth could possibly pass by a model of a modern locomo-Run, besides these following dramas, all of acknowledged merit, which are sure to please the large following that this theater has: The Teamster's Daughter, Forecastle Tom, Contemptible Theft, The Shepherd's Daughter and the excellent comedy supplied by the films entitled Clarence and Hic Cigarette, The General's Flancee and We've Backing Up.

Madam Morelle will sing the beautiful song of Cowen's, The Swallows and ful song of Cowen's. The Swallows and later will sing one of the latest popular hits, as will Mr. Delaney, who will senture one of the kind that you are sure to whistle.

For oity election today the polls spen in the four districts at 9 a. m. and close at, 4 p. m.

Long distances motoring has promoted the demand for excellent hotels and is now a source of large revenue to them. Automobile parties constitute a profitable fraction of the patronage of the leading hotels of the United States, and may be reckoned as a permanent element of importance in the operations of elegant hostelries. The structure which is to be erected in stresfield will be a valuable asset to Bohemian. that city.-Hartford Times.

The Mass of Oranges.

Oranges are so much a common-place of the time that we do not stop to realize the enormous quantity of place of the time that we do not stop to realize the enormous quantity of them needed to keep the country supplied. During April the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railread carried out of Southern California 3,584 carloads each containing 384 boxes, or a grand total of 268,000,000 oranges shipped. The value of that month's shipments was about $4,000,000,—Rockwille Journal. ville Journal.

WHAT THE PAPERS SAY. The Perfect Tribute.

The simple tribute to Miss Helen Gould's generosity towards soldiers and sailors paid by a private soldier who died recently and made her his legatee as "the friend of all soldiers," will find an echo in the hearts of all the men in both branches of the service who have received such inestimable benefit at her hands. Miss Gould has advised the war department that she intends to use the money in furnishing a room in the new portion of the naval branch of the Young Men's Christian association at Brooklyn. This part of the building, the gift of Mrs. Russell Sage, has just been dedicated, Miss Gould intends to have a tablet placed on the door of the room to the memory of Private Bartlett and explaining by what means the room was

Women and Morals.

We hope that women who claim New Hotels.

It is a truism to say that a first class hotel is one of the best advertisements that a city can have. The excellent hostelry facilities of Hartford have exerted a stimulating influence on the development of the community. The splendid hotel which is now the pride and hoast of Waterbury has introduced thousands of people to the Brass City during the past few years.
